

The ON! Channel

Contact: Gwendolyn Black, Festival Founder Ph: (212) 665-5313

Email: gwenblackarts@yahoo.com. Website: www.artsandjazzfestny.com

Contact: The On Channel, Ph: (347) 759-8455 Email: theonchannel@gmail.com Website: www.theonchannel.com

MEDIA ALERT**

ARTS AND JAZZFEST NYC™ IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE ON CHANNEL
ANNOUNCES HOME SPUN SUNDAYS WITH BROADWAY COMPOSER EMME KEMP AND JAZZ BY THE WATER™--A VIRTUAL CONCERT AND ARTS AND JAZZ FEST NYC 17TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Sat August 22nd, 8 PM. Via Facebook Live, a Pre-Home Spun Sunday Conversation with Broadway Composer, Pianist, and Singer Emme Kemp and Arts and Jazzfest NYC™ Founder and Producer Gwendolyn Black. Ms. Kemp will discuss her long standing musical career and her celebrating 75 Years of Dancing on the Keys™

Sunday, August 23rd, 8 PM. Streaming on The On Channel, Home Spun Sundays with an evening of piano, singing, and conversation with Broadway Composer and Pianist Emme Kemp featuring Bassist Lonnie Plaxico, Saxophonist Patience Higgins and Saxophonist Bill Saxon with other surprise guests.

Sat. Sept. 12th, 3 pm. Streaming on The On Channel, Producer Gwendolyn Black is introducing Jazz By The Water™ series. In lieu of the planned debut in Nolan Park on Governor's Island, the series will launch as a virtual concert and Arts and Jazzfest NYC™ 17 Anniversary celebration. Celebrating Jazz Yesterday and Today™ The concert will feature Percussionist Joe Chambers, Trumpeter Eddie Allen & Friends, Broadway Composer/Pianist Emme Kemp & Friends, Pianist Chuk Fowler, Percussionist Joaquin Pozo, Saxophonist Bill Saxon, Rap Artist Finess (presenting an uplifting song/rap dedicated to Black Live Matters), Vocalists Rochelle Thompson, Cindy Lou Robinson and other special guests.

About Emme Kemp: Spanning over 75 years, Ms. Kemp has appeared on Broadway, numerous theatrical productions, and appeared in several TV series including the CBS Children's program "Captain Kangaroo" with original materials she composed among others. Ms. Kemp has played with who's who of jazz including the late great Eubie Blake and others.

About Arts and Jazzfest NYC™: Founded in 1999 by Artist/Curator and Producer Gwendolyn Black to celebrate the visual side of jazz, Arts and Jazzfest NYC™ and Visual Arts and Jazzfest NYC™ has been at the forefront of presenting visual artists and jazz music. Now in its 17th year, the festival features emerging, established, and master visual artists and jazz musicians, live music, spoken word, other special events. To support the arts through social distancing, the virtual online events enable audiences to have access to the arts while quarantined.

About The On Channel: The ON! Channel Streams the best in award-winning, award nominated, and celebrated content which are created by some of the most talented, respected and diverse creators in the business today. Founded in 2018 by African American entrepreneur Mr. Maurice Woodson, The On Channel features films, TV series, reality shows, documentaries, kids programming, original content as well as listen to audio books and more.

###